GUEST SPEAKER- Jessica Myers-Adams

- October 11th 2026 (Both Services)

Jessica Myers-Adams is a seminarian at United Lutheran Seminary whose faith has been shaped by encountering a loving God who met her in some of the darkest places of her life and gave her a life she never imagined possible. Through Jesus, she has discovered a relationship with God that she can depend on not only for someday, but in the here and now.

Tattooed, curious, and still learning, Jessica believes we have nothing to prove in order to earn God's love—a truth she has had to learn for herself. She has a particular love for the image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd and encourages people to build an honest, everyday relationship with the Shepherd, even when the only prayer they can manage sounds something like, "Bah."

Jessica is committed to continuing to know Jesus more deeply and to helping others discover for themselves the love and new life God offers.

ONE LAST LOOK AT OUR NEW LOGO!

Thank you for the wonderful support and positive response to ELC's new logo! Over the month, we've shared four banners explaining the thinking behind the design and what it says about who we are as a congregation.

In case you missed one of the explainer banners—or perhaps walked right past it!—all four banners are now displayed together in the Welcome Center. Stop by and take one last look before they come down.

We hope our new logo will continue to remind us—and tell our community—who we are: Gathering in Community. Growing in God's Word. Going in Service for Christ.

Gather. Grow. Go.

THIS YEAR'S SUNDAY SCHOOL OFFERING

This year, our children will be giving their offering to the organization called Sleep in Heavenly Peace. This is a local organization that builds beds for children in need. Today, we have a Temple Talk given by John Baker.
